"THE WORST THING ABOUT NEW BOOKS IS THAT THEY KEEP US FROM READING THE OLD ONES."
— JOSEPH JOUBERT

JOINING OUR BOOK CLUB

Reading is encouraged for people of all ages and talking with peers is a great motivation! So if you love to read but can't find a person to talk to about them, come join us! We meet Wednesdays from 6:00_{PM}- 7:00_{PM}. Anyone can join; there are clubs for different ages. Just be willing to read the assigned number of pages before the meetings start. You can inquire within, shoot us an email, or check out our website if you have any questions.

STAFF FAVORITES

- 1984 by George Orwell
- Thirst by Christopher Pike
- Ender's Game by Orson Scott Card
- Starters by Lissa Price

BOOK TRADE

Acting as a library, the Book Trade offers a unique chance to see what kinds of books the people in your community are reading because the collection is solely based upon what others bring in. So whenever you see a book that you have no further use for, bring it on over to our store! You'll be able to get a used book from the trade for free with it, and if you bring that one back, you can get another.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- Sale on non-fiction books: 30% off with the purchase of a children's book.
- Reading to kids ages 3-7 starting Mondays at 4:00_{PM}.
- Book Club meetings weeks of Thanksgiving and Christmas cancelled.
