

Savannah Gomes

Liz Newton

Nonprofit

May 2, 2013

Elevator Speech

Hanja hosts events to raise awareness about cultural importance. During our last event, 120 people were able to participate in workshops about Japanese food, tradition, and language. We aim to promote acceptance within the Rhode Island community. With additional resources, we could host events with more specific categories to explore. If you like what you hear, then visit our website at hanja.com to donate and learn more.